Our sponsors are considering underwriting the cost of the school performances indicated above. In order for that to happen, they are looking for a solid commitment from your school before February 14, 2017. That means, your students would be able to attend the performance at a reduced cost of $10 instead of the public performance fee of $25.00.

This is an incredible opportunity to experience this outstanding live performance of the The Emperor's New Clothes. Our Teachers Manual helps educators to combine your curriculum with musical theater production. This production is the Prince Street Player's Emmy Award winning show that was televised on CBS, which takes place in medieval period with beautiful costumes, scenery, choreography and, live music,

Cheryle Gardner, DOE's Principal Specialist of Fine Arts states: "The Virginia Department of Education enthusiastically supports the exemplary work of the Community Alliance for the Performance Arts (CAPA) Fund. I consider CAPA Fund to be a partner in our efforts to offer quality instruction to Virginia's youth."

If you are interested in attending one of the school performance, please complete and submit the attached reservation form, before February 14, 2017. Seating is limited and are assigned on a first come first serve basis. For more information, you can also email Ron Boucher at rboucher@capafund.org or you can visit our website at www.capafund.org.
